

Notification of Organization Change

ACOM CO., LTD. (hereinafter, "ACOM") announces to implement the following changes in organization with the approval at the Board of Directors held on February 19, 2009.

1. Change in Organization

(1) Integration of offices for contact and consultation

In order to carry out more prompt and appropriate response by centralized operation and management of all sorts of hotlines that are ACOM group employees' contact and consultation (corporate ethics, employment counseling, etc.), "Employment Counseling Office" will be integrated into "Compliance Department".

(2) Structural Enforcement of Credit Administration Department

In order to establish new credit risk management technique according to the introduction of restrictions on the maximum permissible interest rate as well as total loan balance and build an exclusive credit risk management structure due to the integration of DC Cash One Ltd., "Credit Administration Department", credit risk management department, will be strengthened its structure and the name of department will be changed to "Credit Planning Department".

(3) Date of Change

April 1, 2009

2. Reference

Organization Chart: Appendix

Organization Chart

[Appendix]

(As of April 1, 2009)

