Business Report

(April 1, 2024 - March 31, 2025)

1. Overview of Consolidated Business Activities

(1) Developments and Results of Business Activities

During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025, the Japanese economy kept showing a gradual recovery partly due to various government policies as the employment and income environment continued to improve. However, there are some risks that could slow down Japan's economic momentum, due to fluctuations in financial markets and economies in various countries. The impact of those factors on consumer spending and financial markets needs to be closely monitored.

For overseas, the economic conditions in the Kingdom of Thailand, continue to grow gradually led by the expansion in consumer spending and exports. Steady economic growth is expected in the Republic of the Philippines driven by a recovery of consumer spending and exports, as well as in Malaysia, by a recovery of inbound demand and consumer spending.

The demand for funds remains strong in the nonbank business sector in Japan. However, future trends need to be closely monitored as the sector is significantly impacted by consumer spending. Although the requests for interest repayment are decreasing, future trends need to be closely monitored on an ongoing basis, as requests for interest repayment are susceptible to the impacts of changes in the external environment.

In such an environment, the Group has been promoting its operating activities under the medium-term management plan, which the final year was the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025. This plan sets forth the vision of "Meeting the expectations of all our stakeholders" and defines the initiatives to be undertaken over the three-year period as its medium-term policy for realizing this vision.

Consolidated operating revenue for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025, increased to 317,742 million yen (up 7.8% year-on-year) mainly due to an increase in interest on operating loans resulting from an increase in accounts receivable - operating loans and the impact of the depreciation of Japanese yen. On the other hand, operating expenses increased to 259,181 million yen (up 24.4% year-on-year) mainly due to the recording of 40,033 million yen in provision for loss on interest repayment based on a recalculation in light of the recent trend in requests for interest repayment. As a result, operating profit decreased to 58,561 million yen (down 32.2% year-on-year), ordinary profit decreased to 58,919 million yen (down 32.1% year-on-year), and profit attributable to owners of parent decreased to 32,124 million yen (down 39.5% year-on-year).

Details of main financial service businesses by segment are as follows:

1) Loan and credit card business

In the domestic loan and credit card business, we made efforts to attract new customers and maintain the soundness of our loan portfolio.

As measures to attract new customers, we have worked on initiatives to enhance the brand appeal of “Hajimete-no (First time at) ACOM” through activities such as revamping our television commercials and the “Challenge What You Want to Start” project.”

In addition to these marketing activities, we have endeavored to maintain the soundness of our loan portfolio and improve the customer-reception quality of our employees by improving the accuracy of credit screenings and reinforcing the development of human resources through training for credit control and customer reception.

Furthermore, GeNiE Inc., a subsidiary of the Company, launched its unsecured loan business in October 2024. We will continue to take efforts to strengthen the business foundation.

In the loan business, accounts receivable - operating loans at the end of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025 increased to 936,015 million yen (up 6.5% year-on-year), amid a sign of recovery in consumer spending. In the credit card business, accounts receivable - installment increased to 137,371 million yen (up 12.3% year-on-year) driven by an increase in transaction volume.

As a result, the segment's operating revenue for the current fiscal year totaled 169,464 million yen (up 8.6% year-on-year) mainly due to higher accounts receivable - operating loans and accounts receivable – installment. Operating profit decreased to 14,033 million yen (down 66.4% year-on-year) mainly due to the recording of 40,033 million yen in provision for loss on interest repayment.

2) Guarantee business

In the guarantee business, we worked to deepen communication with existing partners and continued appropriate screening. We have worked on attracting new customers through joint advertisements in which multiple partners use common advertisement materials and on providing support for a variety of sales measures and improvement of business efficiency, etc. through temporary transfer of personnel for technical guidance. In addition to these initiatives, we have continued to strive to develop new partners including non-financial companies.

The balance of guaranteed receivables for the current fiscal year increased to 1,364,525 million yen (up 6.7% year-on-year), amid a sign of recovery in consumer spending.

As a result, the segment's operating revenue for the current fiscal year totaled 76,332 million yen (up 7.8% year-on-year) due to an increase in the balance of guaranteed receivables and a revision of guarantee fee rates, and operating profit totaled 23,657 million yen (up 4.3% year-on-year).

3) Overseas financial business

In the overseas financial business, we carried out business operations in the pursuit of reconciling the expansion of market share and the provision of appropriate credit for relevant businesses.

EASY BUY Public Company Limited (hereinafter “EASY BUY”), a subsidiary of the Company which engages in the loan business in the Kingdom of Thailand, actively conducted marketing activities of the Umay+ brand with the aim of enhancing the brand image and gathering and acquiring new customers, thereby building the top-brand position in the country. In addition, EASY BUY has worked to promote digitalization through efforts, such as organizing data within its mobile application.

ACOM CONSUMER FINANCE CORPORATION, a subsidiary of the Company which engages in the loan business in the Republic of the Philippines, has been working to improve the quality of loans through efforts such as promoting the acquisition of preferred customers.

ACOM (M) SDN. BHD., a subsidiary of the Company established in Malaysia, has been working to establish its business operations and strengthen sales since starting its business in September 2023, and will continue taking efforts to enhance the business foundation going forward. In addition, we have also promoted necessary surveys in other Asian countries to explore the feasibility of business development.

The balance of the overseas financial business at the end of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025 increased to 266,794 million yen (up 9.7% year-on-year) due to the foreign exchange impact on the depreciation of the yen, although the outstanding balance on a local currency basis decreased due to restrictions on household debt of the Kingdom of Thailand.

As a result, the segment's operating revenue for the current fiscal year was 65,449 million yen (up 5.7% year-on-year) due to the foreign exchange impact on the depreciation of the yen. However, operating profit decreased to 19,355 million yen (down 13.5% year-on-year) as a result of an increase in operating expenses mainly due to an increase in provision for bad debts.

4) Loan servicing business

In the loan servicing business, as the servicer market's contraction trend slows, IR Loan Servicing, Inc., a subsidiary of the Company, worked to enhance its sales and collection capabilities, such as focusing on strengthening relationships with existing business partners and upgrading collection methods, particularly for retail.

As a result, the segment's operating revenue totaled 6,517 million yen (up 11.1% year-on-year), owing to an increase in the proceeds from purchased receivables. Operating profit totaled 1,277 million yen (up 8.0% year-on-year).

(5) Issues to be Addressed

In formulating a new three-year medium-term management plan beginning with the fiscal year ending March 31, 2026, we have set forth “Accelerating the Growth Cycle to Achieve Our Vision” as our medium-term policy. In order to continuously meet the expectations of all stakeholders, “Growth” is essential, not only for our Group as a whole but also for each of our employees. To achieve such growth, it is necessary to make “Investments” in both business and talent. Furthermore, to enable such investments, it is required to achieve continuous “Profit” expansion. These profits are generated through “Customer Satisfaction,” both among our customers and alliance partners. In turn, in order to deliver such satisfaction, “Growth” is again indispensable. We refer to this cycle as the “Growth Cycle.” Further, we will focus on what we should address in order to expand the scope of each business, as well as seek to enhance corporate value.

In addition, we have adopted our Basic Policies on Sustainability, aiming to reconcile solutions to social issues with enhancing corporate value. We have selected five materialities (key areas) in which we can solve the social issues that we are uniquely suited to solve, and contribute to progress in society, in the course of our corporate activities. They are based on the corporate philosophy that embodies the universal values we must give the highest priority, and on the expectations of our stakeholders.

Under the medium-term management plan starting from the fiscal year ending March 31, 2026, we will continue to promote initiatives based on the materialities under the leadership of the Sustainability Promotion Office to advance management that contributes to the realization of a sustainable society. In order to fulfill the social responsibility and mission expected of the Company and become a company that grows together with society, the Company aims to enhance corporate value.

For the medium-term management plan starting from the fiscal year ending March 31, 2026, the Group has set the targets for its consolidated outstanding balance, 1,314.9 billion yen in the balance of the loan and credit card business, and 1,696.0 billion yen in the balance of the guarantee business, totaling 3,010.9 billion yen in the domestic market; and in overseas markets, targets of 53.1 billion Thai baht in the balance of the loan business for EASY BUY Public Company Limited in the Kingdom of Thailand, 2.1 billion Philippine pesos in the balance of the loan business for ACOM CONSUMER FINANCE CORPORATION in the Republic of the Philippines, and 0.1 billion Malaysian ringgit in the balance of loan business for ACOM (M) SDN. BHD. in Malaysia.

Targets and other forward-looking statements are based on information currently available to the Company and on certain assumptions deemed to be reasonable, and do not constitute a promise by the Company that the anticipated results will be achieved. The actual results may differ due mainly to the impacts of changes in external environments unexpected by the Company.

Under the medium-term management plan, the Company will continue working to expand business and address the following issues.

- Loan and credit card business

In the loan and credit card business, we will appropriately and speedily grasp the rapidly evolving digital landscape, and will strive to expand our business operations by promoting expansion of transactions with existing customers, strengthening of our ability to attract new customers, maintenance of the soundness of our credit profile, etc. In addition, in order to expand unsecured loan services at GeNiE Inc. in alliance with a partner that has end users, we will deliver new experiences to the customers using the partner's services by providing them with financial services. Moreover, the Company is committed to increasing its brand strength through a range of activities, including the new "Challenge What You Want to Start! Project" aimed at creating a society where everyone in Japan can try something new, launched in November 2021, as well as other activities contributing to society.

- Guarantee business

In the guarantee business, we will expand the scope of our business operations by realizing guarantee partnerships with non-financial companies that serve customers in need of credit card loans and newly entering into alliance in the guarantee business with financial institutions, and will also further deepen collaboration with existing partners through in-depth communication with them. To meet the increasingly complex demand of each and every financial institution, the Group will make the best use of its expertise gained from its loan and credit card business to enhance and improve service functions, while working to ensure appropriate screening and responding to the customers' need for sound financing.

- Overseas financial business

In the overseas financial business, we will strive to expand the market share of EASY BUY Public Company Limited in the Kingdom of Thailand, and maintain the soundness of its loan portfolio, while concentrating our efforts on making ACOM CONSUMER FINANCE CORPORATION in the Republic of the Philippines and ACOM (M) SDN. BHD. in Malaysia the second and third pillars of profit in the overseas financial business.

We will also steadily pursue research and analysis activities aimed at realization of starting operations in other Asian countries with a view to expanding our overseas finance business.

(3) Compensation to Directors for the Fiscal Year under Review

1) Policy concerning the Decision on the Details of Individual Compensation to Directors

The Board of Directors determined a policy concerning the decision on the details of individual compensation payable to Directors (excluding those serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members). In summary, with regard to compensation payable to Directors (excluding those serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), the Company has established a compensation system sufficient to function as an incentive to seek sustainably increasing corporate value, by setting the compensation levels at companies that have the same business scale as the Company or that belong to the relevant business types and business categories as benchmarks. Compensation to each Director is to be payable in cash. Compensation to Representative Directors and Directors serving as Executive Officers consists of basic compensation, performance-linked compensation, and stock price-linked compensation, while compensation to part-time Directors consists of basic compensation only. Basic compensation is fixed compensation to be paid once monthly, performance-linked compensation is variable compensation to be paid once yearly according to business results, and stock price-linked compensation is variable compensation to be paid upon retirement according to stock price.

The Company determines the amount of basic compensation payable to Directors (excluding those serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) at the Board of Directors after the Appointment and Remuneration Committee deliberates and proposes the respective amounts to be paid according to the positions and other factors, in consideration of the compensation levels at other companies, the business results of the Company, the levels of employees' salaries and other factors. The Company determines the amount of performance-linked compensation payable to Directors (excluding those serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) at the Board of Directors after the Appointment and Remuneration Committee calculates basic distribution funds with "Profit attributable to owners of parent" as an indicator and thereupon deliberates and proposes the respective amounts to be paid according to the positions, individual evaluations, and other factors. The amount of stock price-linked compensation is calculated by multiplying the number of phantom shares which are granted every year by the stock price three years later and the Company determines as to the grant of phantom shares at the Board of Directors after the Appointment and Remuneration Committee deliberates and proposes such grant in consideration of its business condition, etc.

The target percentage of variable compensation (performance-linked compensation and stock price-linked compensation) out of total compensation is approximately twenty-five percent (if the amount of performance-linked compensation and stock price-linked compensation is a standard one). With regard to the method used for determining the amount of performance-linked compensation, the Company determines the range of profit as a standard for the basic distribution funds at the Appointment and Remuneration Committee in consideration of special factors such as extraordinary income and losses out of profit. Then, the Company determines the amount of performance-linked compensation by multiplying the basic distribution funds by a rate according to the percentage of distribution per position and an individual Director's evaluation at the Board of Directors. In determining the amount of stock price-linked compensation, the Appointment and Remuneration Committee determines the number of phantom shares calculated according to a base amount set annually for each Representative Director and each Director serving as an Executive Officer, and the Board of Directors determines the grant of such stock. The phantom shares are converted into points by multiplying the stock price three years later. Points accumulated during the term of office are converted into a monetary amount and paid upon retirement.

Changes in profit attributable to owners of parent including the fiscal year under review are stated at "1. (6) Changes in Assets and Income of the Company."

Other details of the compensation payable to Directors are deliberated and proposed by the Appointment and Remuneration Committee and thereupon determined by the Board of Directors. The amount of compensation payable to Audit and Supervisory Committee Members is determined through consultation among Audit and Supervisory Committee Members in consideration of their duties and responsibilities.

2) Resolutions at a General Meeting of Shareholders on Compensation to Directors

At the 40th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 22, 2017, it was resolved that compensation payable to Directors (excluding those serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) per year shall be no more than 400 million yen (excluding the portion of employee's salary payable to Directors who concurrently serve as employees). The number of Directors (excluding Directors serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) as of the conclusion of the above Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders was six. In addition, at the same Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, it was resolved that compensation payable to Directors serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members per year shall be no more than 100 million yen. The number of Directors serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members as of the conclusion of the above Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders was four.

As of March 31, 2025, the number of Directors (excluding those serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) was seven and the number of Directors serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members was three.

3) Reasons Why the Board of Directors Deemed that the Details of Individual Compensation Payable to Directors were in line with the Policy

The details of the individual compensation payable to Directors (excluding those serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) for the fiscal year under review were deliberated and proposed by the Appointment and Remuneration Committee within the compensation limit approved at the general meeting of shareholders based on the Director's position, evaluation, and other factors, and were thereupon determined by the Board of Directors in due consideration of the contents of the proposal. The resulting translation gains and losses are recorded as foreign currency translation adjustments and non-controlling interests under the net assets section.

- 4) Accounting standards for significant allowances and provisions

Allowance for doubtful accounts	To provide for potential loss on consumer loans and other loans, the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries make an allowance for the expected amount of irrecoverable loans. Allowances for ordinary bad debts are computed, based on the historical rate of default. For specific debts where recovery is doubtful, the Company considers the likelihood of recovery on an individual basis.
Provision for loss on guarantees	To provide for loss on guarantees, the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries make an allowance for potential losses at the end of the fiscal year.
Provision for loss on interest repayment	To prepare for potential loss on interest repayment in the future, the Company estimates and provides a reasonable amount of provision for loss on interest repayment, in consideration of the past actual results and the latest interest repayment situations.

- 5) Accounting standards for significant revenue and expenses
 - (a) Revenues from financial instruments transactions

Interest on operating loans	Interest is recorded on an accrual basis. Accrued interest on operating loans is recorded, using the interest rate stipulated in the Interest Rate Restriction Act or the contracted interest rate of the Company, whichever the lower.
Revenue from credit card business
Fees from customers	Recorded by the credit balance method Under the credit balance method, fees to be recorded as revenue is calculated pursuant to the prescribed rates applicable to the relevant credit balance.

 - (b) Fees and commissions

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognized in the consolidated statement of income based on the progress toward satisfaction of performance obligations identified in accordance with the substance of the transaction for each contract.

Fees and commissions mainly include fees for ATM usage and fees from MasterCard member stores. Fees for ATM usage are recognized as revenue at the time that the customers use ATMs at financial institutions in alliance and other partners. Fees from MasterCard member stores are recognized as revenue at the time that the customers pay by their credit cards at the stores (at the time of sale-on-credit transaction).

- 6) Significant hedge accounting method
 - (a) Hedge accounting method

The Company adopts the deferred hedge accounting. However, exceptional accounting treatments are applied to certain interest-rate swaps which meet specific conditions and designation transactions are applied to those that conform to the requirements of designated currency swap.
 - (b) Hedging instruments and hedging items

Interest rate-related items
Hedging instruments	Interest-rate swap agreements
Hedging items	Borrowings with variable interest rates
 - (c) Hedging policy

The Company and its subsidiaries enter into derivatives contracts to hedge against various risks. These contracts include the following: Interest-rate swaps to hedge against the risk of fluctuations in interest rates relating to borrowings with variable interest rates for the purpose of protecting cash flows.

(d) Method for evaluating hedging effectiveness

Important requirements concerning hedging instruments and hedging items are closely matched with each other. Also, the Company can assume that fluctuations in interest rates and cash flows are fully offset by the fluctuations in hedging instruments on an ongoing basis since the implementation of hedging contracts. Therefore, the judgment of hedging effectiveness is omitted.

7) Method and period for amortization of goodwill

Goodwill is amortized by the equal installments method over a period of 15 years. However, those with insignificant value are fully amortized in the fiscal year in which they were incurred.

8) Other significant matters for the preparation of consolidated financial statements

(a) Accounting method for retirement benefits

Retirement benefit liability is recorded at the amount obtained by subtracting pension assets from retirement benefit obligations based on their projected amounts at the end of the current fiscal year, in order to provide for employees' retirement benefits. If the projected amount of pension assets exceeds the projected amount of retirement benefit obligations, the excess amount is recorded as retirement benefit asset.

Past service costs are charged to expenses, using the straight-line method, over the determined years (5 years) that are not longer than average remaining service years of the employees at the time of occurrence. Actuarial differences are amortized evenly using the straight-line method over the determined years (5 years) that are not longer than the average remaining service years of employees at the time of occurrence in each fiscal year, beginning from the fiscal year following the time of occurrence.

Actuarial differences and unrecognized past service costs are recorded as remeasurements of defined benefit plans in accumulated other comprehensive income under the net assets section, after adjustments for tax effect.

(b) Accounting method for consumption tax and other taxes imposed on non-tax-deductible assets

Consumption tax and other taxes imposed on non-tax-deductible assets are recorded as an expense for the fiscal year they were incurred.

(2) Information useful in understanding revenue

Information useful in understanding revenue from contracts with customers is as presented in "1. Notes to Significant Matters Providing the Basis for the Preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements, (3) Matters concerning accounting policies, 5) Accounting standards for significant revenue and expenses."

3. Notes to changes in presentation methods

<Consolidated Statement of Income>

“Compensation income,” which had been included in “Other” under “Non-operating income” in the prior fiscal year, is presented separately in the current fiscal year as it has increased its quantitative significance. The amount of “Compensation income” in the prior fiscal year was 40 million yen.

4. Additional information

<Adjustment to Deferred Tax Assets and Liabilities Due to Changes in Corporate Tax Rate>

The “Act for Partial Amendment of the Income Tax Act, etc.” (Act No. 13 of 2025) was enacted by the National Diet on March 31, 2025, and as a result, a new “Defense Special Corporate Tax” will be imposed from the fiscal year beginning on and after April 1, 2026.

Accordingly, for the temporary differences expected to be realized or settled in or after the fiscal year beginning on and after April 1, 2026, deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities have been calculated by using the revised effective statutory tax rate of 31.52%, up from 30.62%.

As a result of this change, net deferred tax assets (the amount after deducting the deferred tax liabilities) for the current fiscal year increased by 463 million yen, income taxes - deferred decreased by 496 million yen, and remeasurements of defined benefit plans decreased by 33 million yen.

5. Notes to accounting estimates

(1) Provision for loss on interest repayment

1) Amount recorded on the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year under review

In the loan business of the Company, the interest rates charged on some loan products in which customers entered into contracts before June 17, 2007 exceed the interest rate ceilings specified in the Interest Rate Restriction Act. In case our customers request forgiveness of the loan amount or reimbursement of excess interest paid, demanding to fulfill obligations based on these maximum interest rates, the Company may accept to write off such loan or reimburse payments in response. To provide for requests for such reimbursement, the Company provides necessary amounts of provision for loss on interest repayment estimated in consideration of the past actual results and the latest interest repayment situations.

Provision for loss on interest repayment recorded on the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year under review was 48,000 million yen, and provision for loss on interest repayment recorded as expense was 40,033 million yen.

Provision for loss on interest repayment is calculated mainly in accordance with predetermined internal regulations and is determined based on deliberations at the Executive Officers’ Meeting. Although uncertainty remains about estimates and major assumptions when calculating provision for loss on interest repayment, the Company makes the best possible estimates ensuring objectivity and reasonableness based on effective internal control. With respect to the above estimates, the Company evaluates the status of disparity between the estimates and actual results each quarter and accordingly reviews the need for additional provision, reversal, etc., and the provision for loss on interest repayment recorded in the current fiscal year.

2) Information conducive to the understanding of the details of accounting estimates

(a) Methods used for the calculation of an amount recorded on the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year under review

To prepare for a potential loss on interest repayment in the future, the Company makes a forecast in consideration of the past actual results and the latest interest repayment situations and estimates a reasonable amount of requests for interest repayment. When estimating the amount, the Company primarily supposes the future estimated figures of the number of requests for interest repayment and the average unit price of requests for interest repayment from their respective past actual results. Then, the Company calculates an estimated number of requests for interest repayment over a certain period in the future. When projecting the future estimated figures of the number of requests for interest repayment, figures that are especially uncertain, the Company groups the future estimated figures per law firm and judicial scrivener’s office according to the trends in the requests for interest repayment. Then, the Company calculates the estimated number of requests for interest repayment in the future for each group based on the past actual rates of requests for interest repayment as calculated from past actual results as well as the latest environmental analysis and the latest trend of requests for interest repayment.

(b) Major assumptions used for the calculation of an amount recorded on the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year under review

Major assumptions are the future estimated figures of the number of requests for interest repayment (the estimated number of requests for interest repayment in the future per law firm or judicial scrivener's office) and the average unit price of requests for interest repayment.

(c) Impact on the consolidated financial statements for the next fiscal year

The major assumptions, which are the future estimated figures of the number of requests for interest repayment and the average unit price of requests for interest repayment per law firm or judicial scrivener's office, are calculated based on the past actual rates of requests for interest repayment as calculated from past actual results as well as the latest environmental analysis and the latest trend of requests for interest repayment. Given the uncertainty of such estimates, provision for loss on interest repayment for the next fiscal year may increase or decrease.

(2) Allowance for doubtful accounts

1) Amount recorded on the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year under review

For accounts receivable - operating loans, accounts receivable - installment and right to reimbursement, which constitute the majority of total assets of the Company Group, an allowance for doubtful accounts is provided for all or part of the outstanding balance of loans, based on the types and conditions at the end of the consolidated fiscal year under review.

Allowance for doubtful accounts recorded on the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year under review was 100,979 million yen.

Allowance for doubtful accounts is calculated mainly in accordance with predetermined internal regulations, and the Company makes the best possible estimates ensuring objectivity and reasonableness based on effective internal control. In the case of an event not stipulated in the internal regulations and other rules, the Company will respond to the event based on deliberations at the Executive Officers' Meeting and other meetings.

2) Information conducive to the understanding of the details of accounting estimates

(a) Methods used for the calculation of an amount recorded on the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year under review

Unsecured loans receivable and installments receivable with which the Company deals are classified into "general allowance" and "specific receivables" with the aim of preventive attachment. Right to reimbursement belongs to "specific receivables" only.

i) General allowance

Unsecured loans receivable are calculated mainly using the historical rate of annual defaults according to classifications based on a credit risk management model, and installments receivable are calculated using the historical rate of annual defaults.

ii) Specific allowance

Receivables on which the Company has concluded out-of-court settlement agreement are calculated using the historical rate of defaults over their average remaining periods and receivables other than the above are estimated in the total amount net of that based on the collected percentage.

*If "general allowance" and "specific allowance" are recorded in duplicate with provision for loss on interest repayment, the relevant amount is reduced from the allowance for doubtful accounts.

(b) Major assumptions used for the calculation of an amount recorded on the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year under review

With respect to the credit risk management model stated in the methods used for calculation as above, the Company comprehensively evaluates the attributes of receivables in correlation with the write-off of bad debts, the details of transactions, etc., and converts the probability of the future occurrence of write-off of bad debts to customers into a numerical value using a statistical method. Therefore, the classification based on the said value is a major assumption.

(c) Impact on the consolidated financial statements for the next fiscal year

The Company continuously reviews and revises classifications based on a credit risk management model, a major assumption. If the above classification needs to be revised because of changes in the external management environment due to future uncertainties and other factors, it may have an impact on the amount of allowance for doubtful accounts to be recognized in the consolidated financial statements for the next fiscal year and thereafter.

(3) Deferred tax assets

1) Amount recorded on the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year under review

The Group records deferred tax assets in the amount deemed recoverable for deductible temporary differences, etc.

Deferred tax assets recorded on the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year under review were 39,255 million yen.

Deferred tax assets are calculated mainly in accordance with predetermined internal regulations, and the Company makes the best possible estimates ensuring objectivity and reasonableness based on effective internal control. In the case of an event not stipulated in the internal regulations and other rules, the Company will respond to the event based on deliberations at the Executive Officers' Meeting and other meetings.

2) Information conducive to the understanding of the details of accounting estimates

(a) Methods used for the calculation of an amount recorded on the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year under review

The Group records deferred tax assets in the amount deemed recoverable for deductible temporary differences, etc. The recoverability is determined by scheduling temporary differences, etc. against the future taxable income before additions and subtractions of temporary differences, etc. (including retained tax losses and credits) which is estimated primarily based on the projected profits in the three-year medium-term management plan beginning from the next fiscal year, considering external factors such as the business environment, the Group's operating results, and the achievement level of past medium-term management plans.

The reversal of deductible temporary differences is estimated for provision for loss on interest repayment by forecasting a reasonable amount of requests for interest repayment in consideration of the past actual results and the latest interest repayment situations; and for allowance for doubtful accounts and provision for loss on guarantees by considering the historical rate of default and other factors.

(b) Major assumptions used for the calculation of an amount recorded on the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year under review

Taxable income is calculated based on the profits, etc. of the medium-term management plan, incorporating key assumptions such as plans for outstanding balances of accounts receivable - operating loans and accounts receivable - installment in the loan and credit card business, guarantee obligations in the guarantee business, and accounts receivable - operating loans in the overseas financial business.

(c) Impact on the consolidated financial statements for the next fiscal year

The amount of deferred tax assets to be recorded on the consolidated financial statements for the next fiscal year may be affected by uncertain future changes in the business environment, an increase in requests for interest repayment, and other unforeseen reasons.

8. Notes to financial instruments

(1) Matters concerning the financial instruments

1) The Group's policy for financial instruments

The Group conducts financial service businesses. These include loan business, credit card business, guarantee business and loan servicing business. To finance the operation of these businesses, the Group raises funds through indirect financing, i.e., borrowings from financial institutions, as well as direct financing, such as issuing bonds, etc., in light of the market situation and balance between fixed interest rates and variable interest rates. The Group conducts derivative transactions primarily for the purpose of hedging against the risk of fluctuations in interest rates associated with these financing operations, and does not have a policy to conduct speculative trading.

2) Details of financial instruments and associated risks

Major financial assets held by the Group are accounts receivable - operating loans and accounts receivable - installment; these assets are exposed to credit risk resulting from customers' default of payments. In addition, the Group holds shares, investments in partnership, etc. on a portfolio investment basis. These assets are exposed to the risk of market price fluctuations and some are open to the risks of issuer's credit. Financial liabilities including borrowings, bonds and commercial papers are exposed to liquidity risk, giving some indication of the possibility that the Group may not be able to make payment at the due date as a result of a change in the Group's credit standings or the market environment. Likewise, liabilities with variable interest rates have a certain degree of interest-rate risk, but the Group mitigates this risk through interest rate swap transactions.

Derivative transactions include interest rate swap agreements for the purpose of hedging against the risk of fluctuations in interest rates associated with borrowings, etc. For details of hedging instruments, hedging items, hedging policy and the method for evaluating hedging effectiveness concerning hedge accounting, please refer to aforementioned “1. Notes to Significant Matters Providing the Basis for the Preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements, (3) Matters concerning accounting policies, 6) Significant hedge accounting method.”

3) Risk management system for financial instruments

(a) Credit risk management

According to internal rules, the Company incorporates and operates a structure to cope with individual transaction-based credit administration, credit information management, a credit rating system, a self-assessment system, problem loans and to regularly monitor its credit portfolios. The credit management and credit business promotion divisions separately conduct individual transaction-based screening and credit management, designed to facilitate a mutual surveillance function. In addition, the Company holds a regular management meeting to report and discuss important matters on credit risk management and operations. Separately it has a system under which the internal audit department reviews the appropriateness of the Company's credit business operations, ensuring that the Company engages in a proper credit business. Consolidated subsidiaries also have similar management systems in place.

(b) Market risk management

The Company and some of its consolidated subsidiaries utilize interest rate swap agreements to mitigate the risk of fluctuations in interest payments on their borrowings.

The Group conducts derivative transactions primarily with the aim of optimizing financing costs and adjustment of the fixed/variable interest rates proportion. It does not have a policy of conducting derivatives trading for speculative purposes. Further, execution and administration of derivatives transactions are conducted in accordance with the Company's internal rules that stipulate the trading authority, trading limits, etc., under the basic policy approved at meetings of management.

Consolidated subsidiaries also have similar market risk management systems in place.

In addition, all the accounts receivable – operating loans, which are the Group's principal financial assets, are fixed interest rates, and large part of borrowings and bonds, which are the Group's principal financial liabilities, are also fixed interest rates, therefore they have low sensitivity to fluctuations in interest rates. That is why the Group does not conduct a quantitative analysis on the market risk.

With regards to the items of which fair values are determined using the market interest rate, if the interest rate as of March 31, 2025, had been 1 basis point (0.01%) lower, the fair value of their net amount (asset side) -relevant financial assets after deduction of financial liabilities- would increase by 238 million yen on the condition that all risk variables other than interest rate are constant. To the contrary, if the interest rate had been higher by 1 basis point (0.01%), the net amount would decrease by 238 million yen.

(c) Management of liquidity risk associated with financing activities

The Company manages the liquidity risk by reviewing its financing plan on a timely basis according to past financing results, changes in market conditions or interest rate situations, etc., based on the financing plan approved at meetings of management. Also for that purpose, it maintains a certain amount of liquidity at all times, secures commitment lines, seeking diversity and appropriate balance of financing methods in light of the market environment. Consolidated subsidiaries also have similar financing systems in place.

4) Supplementary explanations on fair value of financial instruments

The fair value of financial instruments is calculated based on certain assumptions, and the value might differ if different assumptions are used. In addition, the contract amount of the derivative transactions described below in “(2) Matters concerning the fair value of financial instruments” does not represent the market risk of the derivative transactions.

(2) Matters concerning the fair value of financial instruments

The book value on the consolidated balance sheet and fair value of financial instruments as of March 31, 2025, as well as the differences between these values are described below. “Deposits,” “short-term borrowings,” and “commercial papers” are omitted, because they comprise cash and short-term instruments whose book value approximates their fair value.

(3) Fair value information by level within the fair value hierarchy

The fair value of financial instruments is classified into the following three levels according to the observability and materiality of inputs used to measure fair value.

Level 1 fair value: Fair value measured using observable inputs, i.e., quoted prices in active markets for assets or liabilities that are the subject of the measurement.

Level 2 fair value: Fair value measured using inputs other than Level 1 inputs, out of observable inputs for fair value measurement.

Level 3 fair value: Fair value measured using unobservable inputs.

If multiple inputs are used that are significant to the fair value measurement, the fair value measurement is categorized in its entirety in the level of the lowest level input that is significant to the entire measurement.

(Note) A description of the valuation technique(s) and inputs used in the fair value measurements

Derivative transactions

The fair value of derivative transactions is measured using the discounted cash flow method based on observable inputs, such as interest rates, and is classified as Level 2.

Notes to derivative transactions are as follows.

1) Derivative transactions not subject to the application of hedge accounting

With regard to derivative transactions which are not subject to the application of hedge accounting, the contract amount or equivalent of the principal amount prescribed by the contract, fair value, and unrealized gain or loss as of the closing date of consolidated accounting according to transaction type of investments are as follows:

(a) Interest-related derivatives

(Millions of yen)

Category	Transaction type	Contract amount	Amount of more than 1 year-period contracts	Fair value	Unrealized gain (loss)
Over-the-counter transactions	Interest rate swap agreements Fixed interest payments and floating interest receivables	16,750	10,161	(250)	(250)

2) Derivative transactions subject to the application of hedge accounting

With regard to derivative transactions which are subject to the application of hedge accounting, the contract amount or equivalent of the principal amount prescribed by the contract as of the closing date of consolidated accounting according to hedge accounting methods are as follows:

(a) Interest-related derivatives

(Millions of yen)

Hedge accounting method	Transaction type	Major hedging items	Contract amount	Amount of more than 1 year-period contracts	Fair value
Interest rate swap agreements subject to the application of exceptional accounting treatments	Interest rate swap agreements Fixed interest payments and floating interest receivables	Long-term borrowings	1,700	1,000	(Note)

(Note) Interest rate swap agreements subject to the application of exceptional treatments are recognized together with hedging items (i.e., long-term borrowings), therefore, their fair values are included in the fair value of the relevant long-term borrowings.

Accounts receivable - operating loans and accounts receivable - installment

Accounts receivable - operating loans and accounts receivable - installment are stated at their present values, which are calculated by discounting expected future cash flows of the potentially recoverable principal and interest by the current market interest rate. These exclude secured loans and accounts receivable - installment, which are stated at adjusted book value; the expected amount of loan losses on these assets are calculated based on the expected recoverable amount of their collateral securities, hence their fair values approximate their balance sheet values at the closing date, less the current expected amount of loan losses. These fair values are classified as Level 3. Meanwhile, accounts receivable - operating loans and the assets related to the installment sales finance business at certain consolidated subsidiaries are stated at adjusted book value, as their average remaining periods are roughly one year and their fair values approximate their balance sheet values net of an allowance for doubtful accounts. These fair values are also classified as Level 3.

Purchased receivables

These are stated at adjusted book value. The expected amount of loan losses on these assets are calculated based on either the present value of expected future cash flows or expected recoverable amount of their collateral securities or guarantees; hence their fair values approximate their balance sheet values at the closing date, less the current expected amount of loan losses. These fair values are classified as Level 3.

Current portion of bonds payable and bonds payable

Bonds with fair value are stated at market price. Bonds without market price and privately offered bonds are stated at the present value which is calculated by discounting the sum of principal and interest by the discount rate (i.e. the current market interest rate in consideration of credit risk). These fair values are classified as Level 2.

Current portion of long-term borrowings and long-term borrowings

Long-term borrowings with fixed interest rates are stated at the present value which is calculated by discounting the sum of principal and interest (the sum of exchanged principal and interest through swaps, in the case of borrowings subject to the exceptional accounting treatments of interest rate swaps) by the discount rate (i.e. the current market interest rate in consideration of credit risk). Those with variable interest rates are stated at their book value, which approximates their fair value because they reflect market interest rates in the short term and the credit conditions of the Company and its subsidiaries have not changed significantly since they were executed. These fair values are classified as Level 2.

(4) Accounting standards for allowances and provisions

Allowance for doubtful accounts	To provide for potential loss on accounts receivable - operating loans and other receivables, the Company makes an allowance for the expected amount of irrecoverable loans. Allowances for ordinary bad debts are computed, based on the historical rate of default. For specific debts where recovery is doubtful, the Company considers the likelihood of recovery on an individual basis.
Provision for loss on guarantees	To provide for loss on guarantees, the Company makes an allowance for potential losses at the end of the fiscal year.
Provision for retirement benefits	To provide for employees' retirement benefits, the amount obtained by subtracting pension assets from retirement benefit obligations is recorded, based on their projected amounts as of the end of this fiscal year. If the projected amount of pension assets exceeds the projected amount of retirement benefit obligations after addition or deduction of unrecognized past service

	liabilities and unrecognized actuarial differences, the excess amount is recorded as prepaid pension costs. Past service costs are charged to expenses, using the straight-line method, over the determined years (5 years) that are not longer than average remaining service years of the employees at the time of occurrence. Actuarial differences are amortized evenly using the straight-line method over the determined years (5 years) that are not longer than the average remaining service years of employees at the time of occurrence in each fiscal year, beginning from the fiscal year following the time of occurrence.
Provision for loss on interest repayment	To prepare for potential loss on interest repayment in the future, the Company estimates and provides a reasonable amount of provision for loss on interest repayment, in consideration of the past actual results and the latest interest repayment situations.
(5) Accounting standards for revenue and expenses
1) Revenues from financial instruments transactions
Interest on operating loans	Interest is recorded on an accrual basis. Accrued interest on operating loans is recorded, using the interest rate stipulated in the Interest Rate Restriction Act or the contracted interest rate of the Company, whichever the lower.

Revenue from credit guarantee	Recorded by the credit balance method
2) Fees and commissions
Revenue from contracts with customers is recognized in the non-consolidated statement of income based on the progress toward satisfaction of performance obligations identified in accordance with the substance of the transaction for each contract. Fees and commissions mainly include fees for ATM usage and fees from MasterCard member stores. Fees for ATM usage are recognized as revenue at the time that the customers use ATMs at financial institutions in alliance and other partners. Fees from MasterCard member stores are recognized as revenue at the time that the customers pay by their credit cards at the stores (at the time of sale-on-credit transaction).
(6) Hedge accounting method

The Company enters into derivatives contracts to hedge against various risks. These contracts include the following: Interest-rate swaps to hedge against the risk of fluctuations in interest rates relating to borrowings with variable interest rates for the purpose of protecting cash flows.

4) Method for evaluating hedging effectiveness

Important requirements concerning hedging instruments and hedging items are closely matched with each other. Also, the Company can assume that fluctuations in interest rates and cash flows are fully offset by the fluctuations in hedging instruments on an ongoing basis since the implementation of hedging contracts. Therefore, the judgment of hedging effectiveness is omitted.

(7) Other significant matters providing the basis for the preparation of financial statements

1) Accounting method for consumption tax and other taxes imposed on non-tax-deductible assets

In case our customers request forgiveness of the loan amount or reimbursement of excess interest paid, demanding to fulfill obligations based on these maximum interest rates, the Company may accept to write off such loan or reimburse payments in response. To provide for requests for such reimbursement, the Company provides necessary amounts of provision for loss on interest repayment estimated in consideration of the past actual results and the latest interest repayment situations.

Although uncertainty remains about estimates and major assumptions when calculating provision for loss on interest repayment, the Company makes the best possible estimates ensuring objectivity and reasonableness based on effective internal control. With respect to the above estimates, the Company evaluates the status of disparity between the estimates and actual results each quarter and accordingly reviews the need for additional provision, reversal, etc., and the provision for loss on interest repayment recorded in the current fiscal year.
