Management's Discussion and Analysis

Operating Environment

In fiscal 2009, ended March 31, 2010, the Japanese economy showed signs of turning around, driven by such factors as an upturn in production spurred by increased exports and government stimulus measures, as well as improvements in corporate earnings. In general, however, the economy failed to demonstrate a real recovery sentiment, with the unemployment rate remaining at a high level and worker salaries declining. In the consumer finance industry, the ongoing high level of interest repayment claims placed direct pressure on management. The incremental enactment of the revised Money Lending Business Act, moreover, caused the consumer credit market to shrink and profitability to decline, underscoring the increasingly severe business climate.

Review and Analysis of Consolidated Results

Overall Performance

In fiscal 2009, the ACOM Group (hereinafter, “the Group”) reported a 14.1% year-on-year decline in operating revenue, to ¥278.7 billion, due mainly to declines in the balance of accounts receivable-operating loans and average loan yield over the period.

Operating expenses decreased 7.1%, to ¥272.7 billion, owing to a ¥22.5 billion decline in operating costs. This was despite a ¥6.2 billion increase in provision for loss on interest repayment and a ¥1.7 billion rise in provision of allowance for doubtful accounts. Accordingly, operating income fell 80.3%, to ¥6.0 billion.

The Group reported a net loss of ¥7.2 billion for the year, a deterioration of ¥20.9 billion from the previous fiscal year. This was due mainly to business structure improvement expenses of ¥10.1 billion, which contrasted with a ¥5.7 billion year-on-year decline in loss on sales of stocks of subsidiaries and affiliates.

The Group is seeking to build a framework for the next stage of growth and reinforce its business foundation, with a specific focus on four areas: maintaining its customer base and earnings foundation in the core loan business, responding appropriately to the revised Money Lending Business Act, pursuing cost structural reforms, and promoting its business alliance with the MUFG Group.

In November 2009, the Group announced its new “Strengthening Business Management Policy,” a set of management reinforcement measures, aimed at further enhancing Group-wide operating efficiency and building robust earnings power. Under the measures, we have since taken various actions, including consolidating our outlets and encouraging voluntary retirement among employees.

With respect to the business alliance with MUFG Group, in April 2009 the credit guarantee business of DC Cash One Ltd. was transferred to Mitsubishi UFJ NICOS Co., Ltd. The following month, DCC1 was merged into ACOM. Also in April 2009, RELATES CO., LTD., a wholly owned ACOM subsidiary, was merged into MU Communications Co., Ltd., which immediately became an equity-method affiliate of ACOM. In September 2009, meanwhile, ACOM took over the unsecured card loan guarantee business of The Mitsubishi UFJ Home Loan Credit Co., Ltd.

Operating Revenue and Receivables Outstanding

Loan Business

In fiscal 2009, loan receivables outstanding declined 10.8% from the previous fiscal year, to ¥1,173.5 billion, and operating revenue decreased 13.5%, to ¥240.0 billion.

On a non-consolidated basis, loan receivables outstanding decreased 5.8%, to ¥1,103.9 billion, and operating revenue fell 10.2%, to ¥219.6 billion. The average loan yield of unsecured consumer loans during the year was 18.41%, down 91 basis points from the previous year.

In Japan, the Group adopted a rigorous approach in preparing for the full enforcement of the revised Money Lending Business Act. At the same time, we focused on three core issues aimed at reforming our business model: strengthen our sales and service capabilities, expand our new customer base, and maintain and improve the quality of our loan assets. We also stepped up efforts to further promote our management reinforcement measures. For example, we expedited measures to enhance the efficiency of our office network, by reducing the number of concentrated operating centers from four to two, and also by reorganizing our network of staffed and unstaffed outlets.

EASY BUY Public Company Limited, which handles the Group's loan business in Thailand, opened numerous new booths dedicated to accepting new loan applications and actively advanced its sales initiatives, including by boosting new applications. As a result, the balance of accounts receivable-operating loans in EASY BUY's loan business grew 7.4% on a local-currency basis.

Guarantee Business

In this segment, guaranteed receivables outstanding amounted to ¥317.2 billion, up 119.8% from a year earlier. Fees from credit guarantees rose 62.6%, to ¥12.4 billion, and operating revenue in this segment (including commissions from guarantee services) climbed 22.9%, to ¥14.2 billion.

During the year, we focused on the core issues of expanding its business scope and boosting operating revenue, as well as improving its earnings structure. To this end, we worked to support the sales activities of existing alliance partners while cultivating potential new partners. In July 2009, we reorganized our business promotion system with the aim of boosting operational and personnel efficiency and reinforcing our ability to service defaulted loans once ACOM assumes the guaranteed debts.

In September 2009, ACOM took over the unsecured card loan guarantee business of The Mitsubishi UFJ Home Loan Credit Co., Ltd. In January 2010, we began providing guarantees for Loan Service, a personal loan service offered by Seven Bank, Ltd., bringing our network of alliance partners in the guarantee business to 17. We also worked to increase the balance of guaranteed receivables, including by supporting sales promotion activities for loan products offered by existing alliance partners, centering on BANQUIC, an unsecured card loan offered by BTMU.

Loan Servicing Business

In the loan servicing business, the total collection of purchased receivables was down 22.1% year on year, to ¥12.2 billion, and operating revenue (including commissions on consigned purchases) fell 21.9%, to ¥12.8 billion.

Conditions surrounding the loan servicing sector became increasingly severe during the year, as the impact of a sudden credit crunch, sparked by the subprime loan crisis in the United States, caused the Japanese real estate market to deteriorate sharply. In this environment, IR Loan Servicing, Inc., which handles the Group's loan servicing business, adopted a policy of strengthening profitability and reinforcing its loan servicing capabilities. It has also been sharing its know-how in servicing of small claims with ACOM in order to reinforce its overall servicing system for small claims. At the same time, it worked to optimize its portfolio of operating assets while reducing its holdings of purchased claims secured by real estate.

Credit Card Business

In the credit card business, card shopping receivables outstanding declined 18.2% from a year earlier, to ¥26.5 billion, and operating revenue was down 15.4%, to ¥3.9 billion.

In fiscal 2009, ACOM tightened controls over issuance of credit cards to our loan customers in order to maintain and improve the soundness of its credit portfolio. We also encouraged existing alliance cardholders to switch to an ACOM credit card as their card renewal date approaches. As a result, the total number of cardholders at fiscal year-end was 374 thousands, down 208 thousands from a year earlier, and the transaction volume fell 28.9%, to ¥11.9 billion.

Installment Sales Finance Business

Installment receivables outstanding in this segment declined 10.5% from a year earlier, to ¥31.8 billion, and operating revenue fell 19.8%, to ¥4.0 billion.

AFRESH CREDIT CO., LTD., which handles this business in Japan, sought to address a revision of the Installment Sales Act by maintaining its business scope and boosting profitability while tightening controls of its alliance partners. However, AFRESH CREDIT's transaction volume declined 7.9%, to ¥23.3 billion, and the year-end balance of installment receivables was down 7.5%, to ¥30.2 billion.

Consolidated subsidiary EASY BUY, which handles this business in Thailand, focused on reassessment of alliance partners and improving the soundness of its credit portfolio. On a local-currency basis, EASY BUY's operating revenue declined 52.4%, and its installment receivables outstanding fell 47.1%.

Banking Business

In the banking business, Bank BNP, a consolidated subsidiary in Indonesia, posted a 40.1% year-on-year increase in lending, to ¥25.3 billion, and generated operating revenue of ¥3.5 billion.

In addition to establishing and reinforcing its risk management and compliance frameworks, Bank BNP placed priority on promotion of loans to small and medium-sized companies, its core target market, and sales of unsecured loan products.

Consolidated Operating Expenses

In fiscal 2009, consolidated operating expenses amounted to ¥272.7 billion, down 7.1% from the previous fiscal year. Within this total, financial expenses totaled ¥22.1 billion, largely unchanged from the previous year. By contrast, there was a ¥7.9 billion combined increase in provision of allowance for doubtful accounts and provision for loss on interest repayment. However, this was compensated for by cuts in operating costs. As a result, operating income fell 80.3%, to ¥6.0 billion.

Non-Operating Income (Expenses), Extraordinary Income (Loss), Net Income (Loss)

Total other income, net, edged down ¥0.6 billion, to ¥1.8 billion, largely reflecting a decline in dividend income.

Among extraordinary items, there was a ¥10.1 billion business structure improvement expense, despite a ¥5.7 billion decline in the loss on sales of stocks of subsidiaries and affiliates. This resulted in a net loss of ¥7.2 billion, a deterioration of ¥20.9 billion from the previous fiscal year.

Financial Position

Balance Sheets

At March 31, 2010, consolidated total assets amounted to ¥1,482.5 billion, down ¥123.0 billion from a year earlier. Net assets declined ¥13.1 billion, to ¥439.2 billion. Shareholders' equity (total net assets - stock options - minority interests at the end of fiscal year) was down ¥10.5 billion, to ¥434.5 billion. As a result, the shareholders' equity ratio increased 1.6 percentage points, to 29.3%.

Assets

Total current assets declined ¥126.8 billion year on year, while noncurrent assets increased ¥3.7 billion. Main factors in the decline in current assets included a ¥142.6 billion decrease in accounts receivable-operating loans, a ¥9.6 billion fall in accounts receivable-installment, a ¥5.6 billion decline in purchased receivables, a ¥5.2 billion decrease in short-term investment securities, and a ¥5.0 billion fall in deferred tax assets. The main factor boosting noncurrent assets was an increase in goodwill accompanying the transfer of business from MULC.

Liabilities

Total current liabilities increased ¥22.9 billion year on year, and total noncurrent liabilities fell ¥132.8 billion. Accordingly, total liabilities were down ¥109.9 billion. Main factors holding down liabilities included a ¥46.6 billion decline in interest-bearing debt (including loans and bonds), a ¥78.9 billion decrease in the provision for loss on interest repayment, and a ¥3.0 billion fall in deferred tax liabilities.

Net Assets

Total shareholders' equity declined ¥12.4 billion, due mainly to an ¥11.1 billion decrease in retained earnings, which outweighed a ¥1.8 billion increase in total valuation and translation adjustments. Accordingly, net assets declined ¥13.1 billion year on year.

Cash Flows

At March 31, 2010, cash and cash equivalents stood at ¥133.7 billion, up 1.7% from a year earlier.

Net cash provided by operating activities amounted to ¥63.4 billion. This was because factors boosting cash flows ¥146.2 billion decrease in accounts receivable-operating loans, a ¥9.7 billion decrease in accounts receivable-installment, and a ¥5.6 billion decrease in purchased receivables exceeded factors holding down cash flows, notably a ¥0.9 billion loss before income taxes, a ¥22.8 billion decrease in allowance for doubtful accounts, and a ¥78.9 billion decrease in provision for loss on interest repayment.

Net cash used in investing activities totaled ¥6.1 billion. This was mainly because outlays for business transfers exceeded proceeds from business transfers by ¥4.5 billion. Also, outlays for purchases of shares in subsidiaries exceeded proceeds from sales of shares in subsidiaries by ¥3.4 billion.

Net cash used in financing activities was ¥55.2 billion. This was mainly because repayments of loans and redemption of bonds outweighed proceeds from loans and bond issuance by ¥50.0 billion, while cash dividends paid amounted to ¥3.9 billion.

Risk Management

Business Risks

The following report on “business-related risks” details potential risks to the Group’s operations based on our assumptions and views as of the submission date of this financial statement.

However, the following report does not include all potential risks. With future changes in economic and business conditions affecting the consumer finance industry, there may be new risks that arise from various uncertain factors. Note, however, that forward-looking statements regarding business-related risks are based on our assumptions and views as of the submission date of this financial statement.

Financial Results

The business performance of the Group may be influenced by changes, fluctuations and modifications—and the degree of these—in the each of the items 1) to 8) listed below.

- (a) Increase or decrease in number of customer accounts and average loan balance per customer accounts
- (b) Changes in judicial rulings and legal regulations applicable to the consumer finance industry
- (c) Changes in average contracted interest rates received from customers
- (d) Changes in number of requests for interest repayments, as well as amounts requested
- (e) Competition with other companies
- (f) Rate of default by customers
- (g) The Company’s ability to procure funds and costs involved
- (h) Advertising expenses, personal expenses, and other expenses

Impact of Amendments to the Money Lending Business Act and Installment Sales Act

With the “Act to Partially Amend the Regulations Governing Money Lending Business Act,” the revised Money Lending Business Act came into force on December 19, 2007, and stronger regulations on actions, solicitations and collections have been imposed on our industry. On June 18, 2010, full enforcement of the revised Money

Lending Business Act commenced, prohibiting agreements on interest rates exceeding those stipulated in the Interest Rate Restriction Act and placing restrictions on loans exceeding one-third of a customer’s annual income. The lower yield from enforcement of these provisions is expected to reduce interest on consumer loans and the stricter regulations on lending to decrease the Company’s operating loans receivable.

In addition, the revised Installment Sales Act came into force on December 1, 2009, pursuant to the “Act to Partially Amend the Act on Specified Commercial Transactions and the Installment Sales Act.” The revisions include stricter regulations such as a requirement to make more stringent checks on the capacity of customers to pay and an obligation to supervise affiliate branches. There is a possibility that these revisions will impact on the performance of Group companies operating domestic credit card and installment sales finance businesses.

Status of Interest Repayment

The interest rates charged on some loan products by the Company, in which customers entered into contracts before June 17, 2007, exceed the interest rate ceilings specified in the Interest Rate Restriction Act. In addition, several consumers have taken legal action against consumer finance companies, including the Company, calling for a reimbursement of payments made, asserting that such payments do not meet a part of the requirements set forth in Article 43 of the Money Lending Business Act. In some recent court precedents, the plaintiffs’ demands were accepted.

In case our customers request a reduction in the loan amount or reimbursement of excess interest paid, citing obligations for maximum interest rates under the Interest Rate Restrictions Act, the Company may accept to write off such loan or reimburse payments. The costs of write-off and reimbursing repayments (hereinafter referred to as “loss on interest repayment”) have remained at high level as of the end of the current fiscal year.

Future potential for loss on interest repayment, further booking of the provision for loss on interest repayment, and court rulings from lawsuits demanding refunds of interest paid that put the Company and other finance companies at a clear disadvantage, could have an impact on the Group’s business performance.

Fund Procurement

Fund Procurement

The Group primarily secures the necessary funds for its operations and liabilities repayments through cash provided by operating activities, as well as financing activities such as borrowings from financial institutions, including banks and insurance companies, and direct financing from capital markets, including via bond issues. At the end of the fiscal year under review, 47.2% of the Group's outstanding interest-bearing liabilities had been resourced from the 10 largest of our creditor banks and other financial institutions (excluding those from syndicated loans). While the Group has steadily diversified its funding resources in recent years, there is no assurance that its existing main banks and lenders will not change their current lending policy due to a potential reorganization of the financial industry in Japan or other factors. Furthermore, there is no assurance that capital markets will always be available as a reliable financing resource in the future.

Although the Group has not experienced any serious difficulties procuring funds over the last few years, if our credit rating is lowered, it may become more expensive and difficult for us to procure funds through public offerings or private placements, and this may impact on the performance of the Group.

(B)

Interest Rate on Fund Procurement

While interest rates on our fund procurement may fluctuate due to the market environment or other factors, our maximum lending interest rate is limited, according to rules stipulated by the Act Regulating the Receipt of Contributions, Receipt of Deposits and Interest Rates, irrespective of fluctuations in interest rates on fund procurement.

In order to minimize interest-rate risks, the Group takes various measures, including the use of swap contracts, and observes a policy of maintaining fixed-interest borrowings as a ratio of total borrowings at 90% or higher, to mitigate the influence of factors such as interest fluctuations. However, possible increases in interest rates may have a negative impact on our business performance in the future.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

Loans receivable of consumer loans and accounts receivable-installment constitute the majority of total assets of the Group. For this reason, we book allowance for doubtful accounts, based on the conditions of customers and the estimates of pledged collateral value at the end of the fiscal year.

An increase of payment delays and uncollected loans receivable might occur as a result of potential future changes in economic conditions, the market environment, and the social structure in Japan as well as increases in the number of individuals (including loan customers of the Group) pursuing remedies under legal guardianship pursuant to revisions in legislation, including "Bankruptcy Act," "Act on Concerning Specific Conciliation," "Civil Rehabilitation Act," and "Judicial Scrivener Act." Such events may require further increases in the allowance for doubtful accounts, which may have a negative effect on the business performance of the Group.

Issues Concerning Multiple Debtors

The group addresses the issues concerning multiple debtors, who take out excessive loans or credit-card loans from multiple consumer credit companies, mainly by ways of "promoting consumer enlightenment activities," "improvement of counseling functions for consumer loan customers," "implementation of more rigorous credit administration," "reduction in maximum lending interest rate," "review of the content of advertisement." Nevertheless, business performance of the Group may be negatively influenced in cases where the number of multiple debtors increases due to factors such as economic, employment, and market conditions in Japan or other external factors, which leads to an increase in the allowance for doubtful accounts due to increase in uncollectible loans.

Information Systems

The Group relies on computer systems and networks to manage of information relating to our business, including data on our branch network and customers, in order to provide services to customers and to manage our marketing activities. In case our service for customers are hindered by factors such as damage to the communications infrastructure, the hardware, or the software used for these systems and networks resulting from human error, natural disasters, power outages, computer viruses, etc. or the suspension of support services provided by telecommunications carriers or computer systems companies, it may potentially impact on the performance of the Group. For example, it may result in a decline in new customers, delays in the repayment of loans, and a loss of trust in the Group.

In addition, the Group has a backup center for general ledger system, in order to avoid the possibility of business interruptions. However, it is possible that the Group's business may be suspended in the event of a large scale natural disaster, such as earthquake or flood.

Management of Personal Information

The Group, including the Company and its main subsidiaries, are now regarded as businesses handling personal information as defined by the "Act on the Protection of Personal Information." In the management of personal information, we have ensured management and control structure under "Policy for Protection of Personal Information" and "Regulation for Protection of Personal Information." The Company was granted the Privacy Mark authorized by Japan Information Processing Development Corporation (JIPDEC).

As for the management of Computer Center, we have formulated rigorous safety measures for physical security, including controls on entering and leaving the Computer Center, and for information security, such as controlling access to computer systems. Moreover, we have introduced the framework of Information Security Management System (ISMS) certification for the operation and maintenance of the Computer Center.

Nonetheless, if personal information is leaked to a third party for any reason whatsoever, the negative effects may not be limited to a worsening of business performance arising from a decline in the reputation of the Group or compensation for damages. In the case of a violation of regulations concerning the handling of personal information, the Group may be also subjected to administrative recommendations, and orders.

Business and Capital Alliance with MUFG

In March 2004 we entered into a strategic business and capital alliance with MUFG. MUFG later raised its stake in the Company, and after completing the necessary procedures, the Company became a consolidated subsidiary of MUFG in December 2008. This means that if laws and regulations governing banks, such as the Banking Act, are changed, Group companies may become subject to restrictions concerning the business fields in which they operate.

In addition, if rival companies of similar business enter into similar business and capital alliances with other banks etc., there are possibilities that the Group may face intensified competition, depending on the nature of these alliances.

Investments

To date, the Group has stepped up its entry into new markets and broadened the scale of its involvement in the consumer credit market, including through the formation of joint ventures. The prospect of potential profits obtained from such investments is uncertain and not all of the Groups' new joint businesses or expansion is necessarily successful. Although the Group regularly reviews the profitability and growth potential of each business, possibilities still remain that such reviews may prompt us withdraw from new joint businesses or reduce allocation of human and other resources to such businesses in the future. In the case where a joint business falls short of its profit target, there is a risk that the Group may not be able to recoup its existing investments.

In addition, in the event that the price of equity securities held by the Group drops substantially, there is a possibility that losses may be incurred, which could potentially affect the Group's business results and perhaps reduce its owner's equity ratio.

Disposal of Our Shares by Major Shareholders, etc.

Shigeyoshi Kinoshita, our president and chief executive officer, along with members of his families and affiliated companies together holds around 40% of our issued/outstanding shares. In addition, MUFG also holds around 40% of our issued/outstanding shares (including indirect holdings). If these shareholders dispose of some of their shares in the future, the market supply of our shares will increase, and this may have an adverse impact on our share price.

(5) Accounting policies for translation of significant foreign currency assets and liabilities into Japanese yen used in preparing the financial statements of consolidated companies on which consolidated financial statements are based	Foreign currency monetary claims and obligations are translated into Japanese yen, using the spot exchange rates on the closing date of consolidated accounting and the resulting translation gains and losses are recognized as income and expenses. Assets and liabilities and income and expenses of overseas subsidiaries are translated into Japanese yen at the spot exchange rates on the account closing date and average exchange rates respectively. The resulting translation gains and losses are recorded as foreign currency translation adjustments and minority interests under the net assets section.	Same as the left
(6) Significant hedge accounting method	1) Hedge accounting method The Company adopts the deferred hedge accounting. The interest rate swaps which qualify for hedge accounting and meet specific matching criteria are not remeasured at market value but the differential paid or received under the swap agreements are recognized and included in interest expenses or income. The currency swap which qualify for hedge accounting and meet specific matching criteria are used to hedge the foreign currency fluctuations are translated at the contracted rate if the forward contracts qualify for hedge accounting. 2) Hedging instruments and hedging items Interest rate-related items Hedging instruments: Interest-rate swap agreements Hedging items: Loans payable and bonds with variable interest rates Currency-related items Hedging instruments: Currency swap agreements Hedging items: Foreign currency loans payable 3) Hedging policy In accordance with the Company's internal rules and those of its subsidiaries, the Company and its subsidiaries enter into derivatives contracts to hedge against various risks. Currency swaps to hedge against the risk of fluctuations in exchange rates relating to loans payable and interest on loans. Currency swap contracts to hedge against the risk of fluctuations in exchanges rates relating to foreign currency loans payable for the purpose of protecting cash flows. 4) Method for evaluating hedging effectiveness With regard to interest rate-related hedging, important requirements concerning hedging instruments and hedging items are closely matched with each other. Also, the Company can assume that fluctuations in interest rates and cash flows are fully offset by the fluctuations in hedging instruments on an ongoing basis since the implementation of hedging contracts. Therefore, the judgment of hedging effectiveness is omitted. On currency-related hedging, currency swap contracts are entered into on the same conditions as hedged items, thus the Company can assume that fluctuations in exchange rates or cash flows are fully offset by the fluctuations of hedge instruments. Therefore, the judgment of hedging effectiveness is omitted.	rates relating to their loans payable and bonds with variable interest rates for the purpose of protecting cash flows. (7) Other significant accounting policies for the preparation of consolidated financial statements	Accounting method for consumption tax Transactions subject to consumption tax are recorded at the amount exclusive of consumption tax. However, consumer tax and other taxes imposed on non tax-deductible assets are recorded as an expense for the fiscal year they were incurred. In addition, accrued consumption tax is included in "Other" in current assets on the consolidated balance sheets and unpaid consumption tax is included in "Other" in current liabilities on the consolidated balance sheets.	Accounting method for consumption tax Same as the left

6. Amortization of goodwill and negative goodwill	Goodwill and negative goodwill are amortized by the equal installments method over a 5 year period. However, goodwill amounts that are not significantly large are amortized in full in the fiscal year in which they arise.	Goodwill is amortized by the equal installments method over a 15 year period. Immaterial goodwill and negative goodwill are charged to income for the year in which they arise.
7. Cash and cash equivalents in the consolidated statements of cash flows	Cash and cash equivalents include cash at hand, demand deposits at banks and highly liquid short-term investments with negligible risk of fluctuation in value and maturities of less than three months.	Same as the left

Changes in Method of Accounting

For the prior fiscal year (from April 1, 2008 to March 31, 2009)	For the current fiscal year (from April 1, 2009 to March 31, 2010)
<The Accounting Standard for Measurement of Inventories> Prior to April 1, 2008, inventories were stated at cost, determined by the average method. In July 2006, ASBJ issued ASBJ Statement No.9, "Accounting Standard for Measurement of Inventories," which was effective for fiscal years beginning on or after April 1, 2008 with early adoption permitted. This standard requires that inventories held for sale in the ordinary course of business be measured at the lower of cost or net selling value, which is defined as the selling price less additional estimated manufacturing costs and estimated direct selling expenses. The replacement cost may be used in place of the net selling value, if appropriate. The standard also requires that inventories held for trading purposes be measured at the market price. The Company applied the new accounting standard for measurement of inventories effective April 1, 2008. The effect of this change was to decrease income before income taxes and minority interests for the year ended March 31, 2009 by 6 million yen. <The Accounting Standard for Lease Transactions> In March 2007, the ASBJ issued ASBJ Statement No.13, "Accounting Standard for Lease Transactions," which revised the previous accounting standard for lease transactions issued in June 1993. The revised accounting standard for lease transactions is effective for fiscal years beginning on or after April 1, 2008 with early adoption permitted for fiscal years beginning on or after April 1, 2007. Under the previous accounting standard, finance leases that deem to transfer ownership of the leased property to the lessee were to be capitalized. However, other finance leases were permitted to be accounted for as operating lease transactions if certain "as if capitalized" information is disclosed in the note to the lessee's financial statements. The revised accounting standard requires that all finance lease transactions should be capitalized to recognize lease assets and lease obligations in the balance sheet. In addition, the revised accounting standard permits leases which existed at the transition date and do not transfer ownership of the leased property to the lessee to be accounted for as operating lease transactions. The Company applied the revised accounting standard effective April 1, 2008. In addition, the Company accounted for leases which existed at the transition date and do not transfer ownership of the leased property to the lessee as operating lease transactions. The effect of this change was to decrease operating income by 0 million yen, ordinary income by 0 million yen, and income before income taxes and minority interests by 0 million yen. <Unification of Accounting Policies Applied to Foreign Subsidiaries for the Consolidated Financial Statements> In May 2006, ASBJ issued ASBJ Practical Issues Task Force (PITF) No.18, "Practical Solution on Unification of Accounting Policies Applied to Foreign Subsidiaries for the Consolidated Financial Statements." PITF No.18 prescribes: (1) the accounting policies and procedures applied to a parent company and its subsidiaries for similar transactions and events under similar circumstances should in principle be unified for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements, (2) financial statements prepared by foreign subsidiaries in accordance with either International Financial Reporting Standards or the generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America tentatively may be used for the consolidation process, (3) however, the following items should be adjusted in the consolidation process so that net	— — —

PITF No.18 was effective for fiscal years beginning on or after April 1, 2008 with early adoption permitted. The Company applied this accounting standard effective April 1, 2008. The impact of their change on operating income, ordinary income and income before income taxes and minority interests was none. <Changes in Translation Method of Income and Expenses of Overseas Subsidiaries into Yen> Income and expenses of overseas subsidiaries were formerly translated into yen using the spot exchange rates on the closing date of consolidated accounting. However, in order to average the impact of temporary fluctuations of foreign exchange on periodic profit and loss, and to appropriately reflect the quarterly and the annual profit and loss within the consolidated financial statements, income and expenses of overseas subsidiaries are translated into Japanese yen based on average exchange rates of the accounting period from the current fiscal year. The impact of this change on operating income, ordinary income and income before income taxes and minority interests was an increase of 249 million yen, 258 million yen, and 256 million yen, respectively.	—

<Consolidated Balance Sheets> To accompany the coming into effect of Cabinet Office Ordinance for revisions to financial statement regulations (Cabinet Office Ordinance No.50, issued on August 7, 2008), items presented in the prior fiscal years as “Inventories” are to be separately presented as “Merchandise and finished goods” and “Raw materials and supplies” from the current fiscal year under review. “Merchandise and finished goods” and “Raw materials and supplies” included in “Inventories” for the prior fiscal year were 1,274 million yen and 114 million yen, respectively. <Consolidated Statements of Income> “House rent income,” which was presented as “Rent income of company housing” up to the prior fiscal year, has been changed and presented as “House rent income” since the current fiscal year to improve the comparability of financial statements following the introduction of XBRL into EDINET. House rent income excluding rent from Company’s residence was included in “Others” of non-operating income and the amount was 24 million yen for the prior fiscal year. “Loss on investments in partnership,” which was separately presented up to prior fiscal year, has been included in “Other” of non-operating expenses, as it did not exceed 10 percent of the total non-operating expenses since current fiscal year. Loss on investments in partnership for the current fiscal year was 3 million yen. “Loss on liquidation of investment securities,” which was separately presented up to prior fiscal year, has been included in “Other” of extraordinary loss as it did not exceed 10 percent of the total extraordinary loss since the current fiscal year. Loss on liquidation of investment securities for the current fiscal year was 9 million yen. <Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows> Due to “Loss on liquidation of investment securities,” which was separately presented up to the prior fiscal year, has been included in “Other” of extraordinary loss since the current fiscal year in consolidated statements of income, “Loss on liquidation of investment securities” of operating activities in consol-	<Consolidated Balance Sheets> — <Consolidated Statements of Operations> Effective from the current fiscal year, “Revenue from credit card business (sogo-assen-syueki)” and “Revenue from installment sales finance business (kohin-assen-syueki)” have been presented as “Revenue from credit card business (hokatsu-shinyokonyu-assen-syueki)” and “Revenue from installment sales finance business (kobetsu-shinyokonyu-assen-syueki),” respectively, due to the revision to the Installment Sales Act. “Net sales” in operating revenue and “Cost of sales” in operating expenses had been separately listed up to the prior fiscal year. However, their relative importance decreased due to the exclusion in the prior fiscal year of JLA CO., LTD. (engaged in real estate-related business as well as shop design, construction and building maintenance businesses) and ACOM RENTAL CO., LTD. (engaged in rental business) from the scope of consolidation. Therefore, effective from for the current fiscal year, “Net sales” in operating revenue has been included in “Other operating revenue,” and “Cost of sales” in operating expenses has been included in “Other operating expenses.” “Net sales” and “Cost of sales” for the current fiscal year were 334 million yen and 1,578 million yen, respectively. “Foreign exchange losses” had been separately listed as an item of non-operating expenses up to the prior fiscal year. However, currently it does not account for more than 10 percent of total non-operating expenses. Therefore, it has been included in “Other” in non-operating expenses effective from the current fiscal year. Foreign exchange losses for the current fiscal year were 11 million yen. “Loss on investments in partnership,” which had been included in “Other” of non-operating expenses up to the prior fiscal year, has exceeded 10 percent of total non-operating expenses. For that reason, it is separately listed effective from the current fiscal year. Loss on investments in partnership for the prior fiscal year was 3 million yen. “Loss on disposal of supplies,” which had been included in “Other” in non-operating expenses up to the prior fiscal year, has exceeded 10 percent of total non-operating expenses. For that reason, it is separately listed effective from the current fiscal year. Loss on disposal of supplies for the prior fiscal year was 5 million yen. <Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows> —

(5) Calculation method of recovery value The recovery value of the property to be sold is measured by net realizable value. Net realizable value is assessed by price based on the recent sales result. The recovery value of the property for lease is measured by either the higher of the sum of the expected future net cash flows or net realizable value. The sum of the expected future net cash flows is calculated by discounting at a rate of 7% the cash flows that the asset will generate in the future, while net realizable value is assessed by, for example, a real estate appraiser. The recovery value of the property excluding above is measured to be zero as there are no expectation to use and future net cash flows are below zero.	(5) Calculation method of recovery value The recovery value of telephone subscription right is measured by net realizable value. The recovery value of the property excluding above is measured to be zero as there are no expectation to use and future net cash flows are below zero.

(Notes to Financial Instruments)

For the current fiscal year (from April 1, 2009 to March 31 2010)
(Additional Information)

In March 2008, the ASBJ revised ASBJ Statement No.10 “Accounting Standard for Financial Instruments” and issued ASBJ Guidance No.19 “Guidance on Accounting Standard for Financial Instruments and Related Disclosures.” This accounting standard and the guidance are applicable to financial instruments and related disclosures at the end of the fiscal years ending on or after March 31, 2010 with early adoption permitted from the beginning of the fiscal years ending before March 31, 2010. The Group applied the revised accounting standard and the new guidance effective March 31, 2010.

1. Financial instruments and related disclosures

(1) Policy for financial instruments

The Group conducts financial service businesses including, but not limited to, loan business, credit card business, installment sales finance business, guarantee business, loan servicing business and banking business. To finance the operation of these businesses, the Group raises funds through indirect financing, i.e. borrowings from financial institutions, as well as direct financing, such as issuing bonds, liquidation of receivables, etc., in light of the market situation and balance between variable interest rates and fixed interest rates. The Group conducts derivative transactions primarily for the purpose of avoiding the risk of fluctuations in interest rates and exchange rates associated with these financing operations, and has a policy not to conduct speculative trading.

(2) Nature and extent of risks arising from financial instruments

Major financial assets held by the Group are loans receivable of consumer loans, loans receivable of banking business and accounts receivable-installment; these assets are exposed to credit risk resulting from customers’ default of payments. In addition, the Group holds shares, bonds, investment trusts, investments in partnership, etc. either on a held-to-maturity or portfolio investment basis, while some consolidated subsidiaries hold them for trading purposes. These assets are exposed to the risk of market price fluctuations and some are open to the risks of issuer’s credit and interest rate fluctuations.

Financial liabilities including loans payable, bonds and liquid receivables are exposed to liquidity risk, giving some indication of the possibility that the Company Group may not be able to make payment at the due date as a result of a change in the Group’s credit standings or the market environment.

Likewise, liabilities with variable interest rates have a certain degree of interest-rate risk, but the Group mitigates this risk through interest rate swap transactions. On the other hand, foreign-currency liabilities are exposed to the risk of fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates, which is averted with the help of currency swap agreements.

Derivative transactions include interest rate swaps for the purpose of hedging against the risk of fluctuations in interest rates associated with loans payable and bonds; and currency swap that aim to hedge against the risk of fluctuations in exchange rates concerning foreign-currency loans payable. For details of hedging instruments, hedging items, hedging policy and the method for evaluating hedging effectiveness concerning hedge accounting, please refer to aforementioned “Significant matters providing the basis for the preparation of consolidated financial statements, 4. Matters concerning accounting standards, (6) Significant hedge accounting method.”

(3) Risk management for financial instruments

1) Credit risk management

According to internal rules, the Company incorporates and operates a structure to cope with individual transaction-based credit administration, credit information management, a credit rating system, a self-assessment system, problem loans and to regularly monitor its credit portfolios. The credit management and credit business promotion divisions separately conduct individual transaction-based screening and credit management, designed to facilitate a mutual surveillance function. In addition, the Company holds regular management meetings to report and discuss important matters on credit risk management and operations. Separately it has a system under which the internal audit department reviews the appropriateness of the Company’s credit business operations, ensuring that the Company engages in a proper credit business. Consolidated subsidiaries also have similar management systems in place.

2) Market risk management

The Company and some of its consolidated subsidiaries utilize interest rate swaps to manage the risk of fluctuations in interest payments on their financial liabilities, such as loans payable and bonds. Also, they basically enter into currency swap to hedge against the risk of fluctuations in exchange rate related to their foreign-currency liabilities.

With regard to marketable securities, such as shares and bonds, managements receive regular monitoring reports regarding market trends, market values, issuers’ financial standings, etc., in order to constantly review their asset holdings.

The Companies conducts derivative transactions primarily with the aim of optimizing financing costs and adjustment of the fixed/variable interest rates proportion. It has a policy of not to conduct derivatives trading for speculative purposes. Further, execution and administration of derivatives transactions are conducted in accordance with the Company’s internal rules that stipulate the trading authority, trading limits, etc., under the basic policy approved at meetings of management. Consolidated subsidiaries also have similar market risk management systems in place.

3) Liquidity risk management associated with financing activities

The Company manages the liquidity risk by reviewing its financing plan on a timely basis according to past financing results, change in market conditions or interest rate situations, etc., based on the financing plan approved at meetings of management. Also for that purpose, it maintains a certain amount of liquidity at all times, secures commitment lines, seeking diversity and appropriate balance of financing methods in light of the market environment. Consolidated subsidiaries also have similar management systems in place.

(4) Supplementary explanations on fair value of financial instruments

Fair value of financial instruments are measured based on the quoted market price, if available, or reasonably assessed value if a quoted market price is not available. Fair value of financial instruments which quoted market price is not available is calculated based on certain assumptions, and the value might differ if different assumptions are used. In addition, the contract amount of the derivative transactions described below in “2. Matters concerning the fair value of financial instruments” does not represent the market risk of the derivative transactions.

2. Fair value of financial instruments

The carrying amount and fair value of financial instruments as of March 31, 2010 as well as the differences between these values are described below. Financial instruments whose fair value appear to be extremely difficult to determine are not included in the table. (See (Note 2))

(Note 1) The calculation method for the fair value of financial instruments, marketable securities and derivative financial instruments

Assets

(1) Cash and deposits

Deposits without maturity are stated at their carrying amount, as their fair value approximate carrying amount. Deposits with maturity are stated at their carrying amount, as their remaining periods are short (within a year) and their fair value approximate carrying amount.

(2) Loans receivable of consumer loans, (3) loans receivable of banking business and (4) accounts receivable-installment

The fiscal year-end outstanding balances are stated at their net present value, which are calculated by discounting expected future cash flows of the potentially recoverable principal and interest by the current market interest rate. These exclude secured loans and accounts receivable-installment, which are stated at adjusted carrying amount; the expected amount of loan losses on these assets are calculated based on the expected recoverable amount of their collateral securities, hence their fair value approximate their carrying amount at the closing date, less the current expected amount of loan losses. Meanwhile, the assets related to the installment sales finance business at certain consolidated subsidiaries are stated at adjusted carrying amount, as their average remaining periods are roughly one year and their fair value approximate their carrying amount net of an allowance for doubtful accounts.

(5) Purchased receivables

These are stated at adjusted carrying amount. The expected amount of loan losses on these assets are calculated based on either the present value of expected future cash flows or expected recoverable amount of their collateral securities or guarantees; hence their fair value approximate their carrying amount at the closing date, less the current expected amount of loan losses.

(6) Marketable securities, shares of the parent company, trading account securities and investment securities Shares are stated at the stock exchange quoted price, bonds are stated at either the stock exchange quoted price or the price presented by transacting financial institutions and investment trusts are stated at the official reference price. Certain bonds are stated at amortized cost, as they are redeemed in the short term and their fair value approximate carrying amount. Negotiable deposits are stated at carrying amount, as they are short-term assets and their fair value approximate carrying amount.

For notes to securities according to holding purposes, please refer to the notes "Notes to securities"

(7) Short-term loans receivable

All short-term loans receivable are stated at the price presented by financial institutions.

Liabilities

(1) Short-term loans payable and (2) Deposits of banking business

These assets are stated at carrying amount as they are settled in the short-term and their fair value approximate their carrying amount.

(3) Current portion of bonds payable and bonds payable

Bonds with market value are stated at market price. Bonds without market value and privately offered bonds are stated at the net present value, which is calculated by discounting the compound value (for bonds involved in the interest-rate swaps that meet conditions for exceptional accounting treatments, a principal with interest income at a post-swap interest rate is applied) by the discount rate (i.e. the current market interest rate in consideration of credit risk).

(4) Current portion of long-term loans payable and long-term loans payable

Long-term loans payable are stated at the net present value, which is calculated by discounting the compound value (for loans involved in the interest-rate swap that meet conditions for exceptional accounting treatments and the currency swap that conforms to the requirements of designated transactions, a principal with interest income at a post-swap interest rate is applied) by the discount rate (i.e. the current market interest rate in consideration of credit risk).

(*1) These shares are not included in "Asset (6) Marketable securities, shares of the parent company, trading account securities and investment securities" which contain information about the fair value of financial instruments.

(*2) The fair value of unlisted shares is not disclosed, as they do not have a quoted market price in an active market and it appears to be extremely difficult to determine their fair value.

(*3) The fair value of investments in investment partnerships is not disclosed, as partnerships' assets comprise unlisted shares and other investment instruments whose fair value appear to be extremely difficult to determine.

(Note to Derivatives Transactions)

1. Transaction Information

For the prior fiscal year (From April 1, 2008, to March 31, 2009)
(1) Derivative transactions	The Company and its consolidated subsidiaries enter into derivative transactions for interest-rate swaps and currency swaps.
(2) Derivative transaction principles	The Company and its consolidated subsidiaries do not intend to use derivative transactions for speculative or trading purposes.
(3) Purpose for using derivative transactions	The Company and its consolidated subsidiaries enter into contracts such as interest-rate swap agreements in order to hedge against the risk of fluctuations in interest-rates relating to fixed interest payments and floating interest receivables, and currency swaps agreements in order to hedge against the risk of fluctuation in currencies relating to payments made in Japanese yen and receivables in foreign currency. The Companies' derivative transactions are accounted for as hedging transactions. 1) Hedging instruments and items hedged Interest related derivatives Hedging instruments: Derivative transaction interest-rate swaps agreements Items hedged: Loans with variable interest rates and straight bonds Currency related derivatives Hedging instruments: Currency swaps agreements Items hedged: Loans in foreign currency 2) Hedging policy The Company and consolidated subsidiaries enter into derivative contracts such as interest-rate swap agreements, etc. in order to hedge against the risk of fluctuations in interest rates relating to its variable-rate loans and straight bonds, and currency swaps agreements in order to hedge against the risk of fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates relating to its loans in foreign currency. Derivative transactions are entered into in compliance with the internal rules of the Company and consolidated subsidiaries. 3) Evaluating the efficiency of hedging activities In regard to interest related derivatives, the performance of the hedging instruments and the items hedged is monitored primarily using the same criteria. As it can be assumed that changes in interest rates and cash flows are fully offset by hedging instruments, further evaluation is not required. To hedge against the risk of fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates, currency swaps agreements are concluded on the same conditions as items hedged. As it can be assumed that changes in foreign currency exchange rates and cash flows are fully offset by hedging instruments, further evaluation is not required.
(4) Risk relating to transactions	1) Market risk Although the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries are engaged in interest rate swap and currency swap agreements, no market risk is anticipated as such derivatives have been entered into in order to offset or mitigate gains or losses resulting from the hedged loan transactions, even though interest rate swap and currency swap agreements are exposed to changes in interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates. 2) Credit risk The Company and its consolidated subsidiaries do not anticipate nonperformance by any of the counterparties to the above transactions, all of whom are financial institutions which are deemed highly creditworthy.
(5) Management of risk relating to transactions	The Company and its consolidated subsidiaries have established rules for the authorization of derivative transactions and related risk management rules which stipulate the limits on derivative transactions. All derivative transactions have been entered into in compliance with transactions with these rules. The company's risk management for derivative transactions has been under the control of the Treasury Department of the Company which establishes the position limit for each derivative transaction and monitors the limits. The position limit permissible for each derivative transaction is authorized at the Executive Officers' Meeting when the Company's annual business plan is established. In addition, same criteria are used to monitor consolidated subsidiaries, and important transactions have been under the control of the Treasury Department of the Company.
(6) Supplementary explanations on matters concerning the market value of transactions	The values of contracts etc. presented in matters concerning the market value of transactions are simply the nominal values of the contracts or the computed notional principals involved in derivative transactions. These values themselves do not represent the sizes of the risks involved in the derivative transactions.

2. The fair value of derivatives

For the prior fiscal year (As of March 31, 2009)

(1) Currency related derivatives

The currency-related derivative transactions used by part of the consolidated subsidiaries are currency swap which fix the value of foreign-currency borrowings in yen. Because these borrowings include transactions between consolidated companies that are eliminated in consolidation, they are not treated as hedging transactions in the consolidated accounts.

(Millions of Yen)

Category	Type of derivatives	Contract amount	Amount of more than 1 year-period contracts	Fair value	Valuation gain (loss)
Transactions out of the market	Currency swap	8,739	4,034	(618)	(618)

(Notes) 1. Above transactions were marked to market and valuation gains or losses were reported in the consolidated statements of income.

2. Calculation method

Calculation based on the price presented by transacting financial institutions

(2) Interest rate-related derivatives

Fair value information is omitted, as all the interest-rate related derivatives transactions dealt with by the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries qualified for hedge accounting.

For the current fiscal year (As of March 31, 2010)

1. Derivative financial instruments not subject to the application of hedge accounting

(1) Currency-related derivatives

The currency-related derivatives transactions used by part of the consolidated subsidiaries are currency swap transactions with the aim of fixing the value of foreign-currency borrowings in yen. Because these borrowings include transactions between consolidated companies that are eliminated in consolidation, they are not treated as hedging transactions in the consolidated accounts.

(Millions of Yen)

Category	Type of derivatives	Contract amount	Amount of more than 1 year-period contracts	Fair value	Valuation gain (loss)
Transactions out of the market	Currency swap	9,070	9,070	(358)	(358)

(Note) Calculation method for fair value

Calculated based on the price presented by counterparty financial institutions

2. Derivatives transactions subject to the application of hedge accounting

(1) Interest rate-related derivatives

(Millions of Yen)

Hedge accounting method	Type of derivatives	Major hedging items	Contract amount	Amount of more than 1 year-period contracts	Fair value
Interest rate swap which qualify for hedge accounting and meet specific matching criteria	Interest rate swap transactions
	Fixed interest receivables/ Floating interest payments	Bonds payable	2,760	2,760	14
	Fixed interest payments and floating interest receivables	Long-term loans payable Bonds payable	260,319	204,858	(5,534)
Total			263,079	207,618	(5,520)

(Note) Interest rate swap subject to the application of exceptional treatments are recognized together with hedging items (i.e. bonds payable and long-term loans payable), therefore their fair value are included in the fair value of the relevant long-term loans payable.

(2) Currency-related derivatives

(Millions of Yen)

Hedge accounting method	Type of derivatives	Major hedging items	Contract amount	Amount of more than 1 year-period contracts	Fair value
Currency swap which qualify for hedge accounting and meet specific matching criteria	Currency swap	Long-term loans payable	6,136	3,341	734

(Note) Currency swap agreements subject to the application of designation transactions are recognized together with hedging items (i.e. long-term loans payable), therefore their fair value are included in the market value of the relevant long-term loans payable.

7. Accounting policies for allowances and provisions	(1) Allowance for doubtful accounts To provide for potential loss on loans receivable of consumer loans and other receivables, the Company makes an allowance for the expected amount of irrecoverable loans. Allowances for ordinary bad debts are computed, based on the historical rate of default. For specific debts where recovery is doubtful, the Company considers the likelihood of recovery on an individual basis. (2) Provision for loss on guarantees To provide for loss on guarantees, the Company makes an allowance for potential losses at the end of the fiscal year. (3) Provision for retirement benefits To provide for employees' retirement benefits, the Company makes a provision for estimated retirement benefits for this fiscal year, based on the projected retirement benefit obligations and related pension assets as of the end of this fiscal year. Past service liabilities are charged to expenses, using the straight-line method, over the determined years (5 years) that are no longer than average remaining service years of the employees at the time of occurrence. Actuarial differences are amortized evenly using the straight-line method over the determined years (5 years) that are no longer than the average remaining service years of employees, beginning from the fiscal year following the time of occurrence. As the projected amount of pension fund assets exceeds the amount of projected retirement benefit obligations adjusted by unrecognized past service liabilities and unrecognized actuarial gains or losses, the surplus is recorded as a prepaid pension cost.	(1) Allowance for doubtful accounts Same as the left (2) Provision for loss on guarantees Same as the left (3) Provision for retirement benefits Same as the left (Change in accounting policy) The Company adopted "Partial Amendments to Accounting Standard for Retirement Benefits (Part3)" (ASBJ Statement No.19, issued on July 31, 2008) from current fiscal year. As actuarial differences will be amortized from the next fiscal year, this change has had no effect on operating income, ordinary income and loss before income taxes and minority interests. In addition, as the new discount rate for the computation of retirement benefit obligations, amended as a result of the adoption of this accounting standard, is the same as that used before, it has had no effect on the actuarial differences to retirement benefit obligations.

	(4) Provision for directors' retirement benefits (Additional information) The Company resolved at the Board of Directors meeting held on March 18, 2008 to abolish the retirement benefit for directors and corporate auditors. In addition, it was approved and determined at the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 20, 2008 that provision for directors' retirement benefits shall be paid on their retirement date to those who are incumbent as of the end of the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, according to the terms of office up to the date of the said Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. Therefore, a total of 631 million yen listed under "provision for directors' retirement benefits" was transferred to "Other" under noncurrent liabilities. (5) Provision for loss on interest repayment To prepare for potential loss on interest repayment in the future, the Company estimates and provides a reasonable amount of provision for loss on interest repayment, in consideration of the past actual results and the latest interest repayment situations.	(4) Provision for directors' retirement benefits — (5) Provision for loss on interest repayment Same as the left
8. Accounting policies for revenue and expenses	(1) Interest on consumer loans Interest on consumer loans is recorded on an accrual basis. Accrued interest on consumer loans is recorded, using the interest rate stipulated in the Interest Rate Restriction Act or the contracted interest rate of the Company, whichever the lower. (2) Revenue from credit card business Fees from customers: Recorded by the credit balance method. Fees from member stores: Recorded as fees at the time of transaction. (3) Revenue from credit guarantee Recorded by the credit balance method. (Note) Details of each recording method are as follows: Credit balance method: Fees to be recorded as income are calculated pursuant to the prescribed rates applicable to the relevant credit balance.	(1) Interest on consumer loans Same as the left (2) Revenue from credit card business Same as the left (3) Revenue from credit guarantee Same as the left
9. Hedge accounting method	(1) Hedge accounting method The Company adopts the deferred hedge accounting. The interest rate swaps which qualify for hedge accounting and meet specific matching criteria are not remeasured at market value but the differential paid or received under the swap agreements are recognized and included in interest expenses or income. (2) Hedging instruments and hedging items Hedging instruments: Interest-rate swap agreements	(1) Hedge accounting method Same as the left (2) Hedging instruments and hedging items Same as the left

For the prior fiscal year (from April 1, 2008 to March 31, 2009)	For the current fiscal year (from April 1, 2009 to March 31, 2010)
<The accounting standard for measurement of inventories> Prior to April 1, 2008, inventories were stated at cost, determined by the average method. In July 2006, ASBJ issued ASBJ Statement No.9, "Accounting Standard for Measurement of Inventories," which was effective for fiscal years beginning on or after April 1, 2008 with early adoption permitted. This standard requires that inventories held for sale in the ordinary course of business be measured at the lower of cost or net selling value, which is defined as the selling price less additional estimated manufacturing costs and estimated direct selling expenses. The replacement cost may be used in place of the net selling value, if appropriate. The standard also requires that inventories held for trading purposes be measured at the market price. The Company applied the new accounting standard for measurement of inventories effective April 1, 2008. The effect of this change was to decrease income before income taxes and minority interests for the year ended March 31, 2009 by 6 million yen. <The accounting standard for lease transactions> In March 2007, the ASBJ issued ASBJ Statement No.13, "Accounting Standard for Lease Transactions," which revised the previous accounting standard for lease transactions issued in June 1993. The revised accounting standard for lease transactions is effective for fiscal years beginning on or after April 1, 2008 with early adoption permitted for fiscal years beginning on or after April 1, 2007. Under the previous accounting standard, finance leases that deem to transfer ownership of the leased property to the lessee were to be capitalized. However, other finance leases were permitted to be accounted for as operating lease transactions if certain "as if capitalized" information is disclosed in the note to the lessee's financial statements. The revised accounting standard requires that all finance lease transactions should be capitalized to recognize lease assets and lease obligations in the balance sheet. In addition, the revised accounting standard permits leases which existed at the transition date and do not transfer ownership of the leased property to the lessee to be accounted for as operating lease transactions. The Company applied the accounting standard effective April 1, 2008. In addition, the Company accounted for leases which existed at the transition date and do not transfer ownership of the leased property to the lessee as operating lease transactions. The effect of this change was to decrease operating income by 0 million yen, ordinary income by 0 million yen, and income before income taxes by 0 million yen.	—

[Audit of Financial Statements]

Pursuant to the first paragraph of Article 193 2 of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act, we have audited the consolidated financial statements included in the Financial Section, namely, the consolidated balance sheet and the related consolidated statements of operations, changes in net assets and cash flows, and consolidated supplementary schedules of ACOM CO., LTD. and consolidated subsidiaries for the fiscal year from April 1, 2009 to March 31, 2010. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall consolidated financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of ACOM CO., LTD. and consolidated subsidiaries as of March 31, 2010, and the consolidated results of their operations and their cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan.

[Audit of Internal Control over Financial Reporting]

Pursuant to the second paragraph of Article 193 2 of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act, we have audited management's report on internal control over financial reporting of ACOM CO., LTD. as of March 31, 2010. The Company's management is responsible for designing and operating effective internal control over financial reporting and preparing its report on internal control over financial reporting. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on management's report on internal control over financial reporting based on our audit. There is a possibility that material misstatements will not completely be prevented or detected by internal control over financial reporting.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards for internal control over financial reporting generally accepted in Japan. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether management's report on internal control over financial reporting is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, the scope, procedures and results of assessment of internal control made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the management's report on internal control over financial reporting. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, management's report on internal control over financial reporting referred to above, which represents that the internal control over financial reporting of ACOM CO., LTD. as of March 31, 2010 is effectively maintained, presents fairly, in all material respects, the assessment of internal control over financial reporting in conformity with assessment standards for internal control over financial reporting generally accepted in Japan.

Our firm and the engagement partners do not have any financial interest in the Company for which disclosure is required under the provisions of the Certified Public Accountants Act.
